

Official Narrative Design Submission Form

Deadline for all submissions is July 15, 2006

Governor Janet Napolitano and the Arizona State Quarter Commission invite your ideas for the design of the Arizona State Quarter. Arizona became the nation's 48th state in 1912, and the Arizona State Quarter will be released into circulation in mid 2008, the final year of the state quarter program. Please give us your creative thoughts about how to best represent Arizona on our state quarter. Internet and early submissions are encouraged.

In up to 150 words please print or type your design proposal. Because the design is intended for an area the size of a quarter, the overall design should remain simple. Artwork to help visualize or support the written narrative may be attached on a separate sheet of paper or emailed along with the narrative. Example Narrative: (For the Nevada's State Quarter) A trio of wild mustangs, the sun rising behind snow-capped mountains, bordered by sagebrush and a banner that reads "The Silver State."
